Dear Willie:

If all goes well I'll try to be down for that luncheon should next Friday or Saturday. If it/happen that neither of these days should suit Mr. H[errin]'s engagements please let me know.

I am writing to-day to George Fiske, and will be glad to do all I can for him. I don't think there is the slightest cause for fear that he will be turned out of the Valley.

[John Muir]
